

IGEM EVENTS 2010

IGEM will be holding the following events in 2010:

Solutions for Gas in Flats Seminar – 9th February & 2nd March 2010: This seminar is based on the popular IGE/G/5 seminars previously held in 2006. The seminar will cover the wider issues around gas in flats.

Location: 9th February; IGEM House, Kegworth & 2nd March; Hilton Edinburgh Airport Hotel, Scotland

Sponsorship and exhibition opportunities available

YPN Spring Dinner Dance – 26th March 2010: NEW Date, New Venue for the YPN Dinner Dance.

Location: Kilworth House, Lutterworth

Sponsorship opportunities available

Young Persons Paper Competition Final – 15th April 2010: If you are under thirty years old, enter in to your relevant section paper competition for the chance to win a trip to the World Energy Congress in Montreal, Canada on 12th – 16th September 2010!

Location: IGEM House, Kegworth

Sponsorship Opportunities available

Sir Denis Rooke Lifetime Achievement Medal Presentation to Sir John Parker, FREng, Chairman National Grid, Preceded by the 2010 Sir Denis Rooke Memorial Lecture – 20th April 2010: The Sir Denis Rooke Lifetime Achievement Medal will be presented to Sir John Parker and will be preceded by the Sir Denis Rooke Memorial Lecture.

Location: Royal Society of Arts, London

IGEM/SBGI Awards Lunch – 11th May 2010: With an attendance of over 600 senior executives in the Gas Industry, the Gas Industry Awards Lunch is now recognised as an ideal place to entertain and network at the highest level.

Location: Hilton Park Lane Hotel, London

Sponsorship and table bookings available

Annual Conference and Engineering Update – 8th-9th June 2010: This event offers excellent networking opportunities as well as an array of topical presentations. The programme is being constructed as we speak to ensure all presentations are based on topical subject matters!

Location: Imago, Loughborough

Sponsorship and exhibition opportunities available

IGEM Masquerade Ball – 9th July 2010: Don your lavish ensemble and embrace the decadence and mystery of all things masquerade!

Join us for an evening of champagne, silver service meal and surprise entertainment.

Location: Wroxall Abbey Estate, Wroxall, Warwickshire

Sponsorship and table bookings available.

Gas 2010 – October 2010: A one day seminar jointly organised by IGEM and the Utility Networks Division of SBGI addressing the challenges for the industry in Sustaining the future use of Gas at the heart of the UK energy Scene. A stimulating programme of distinguished speakers is in prospect, together with excellent networking opportunities and topical supply chain exhibition.

Location: Imago, Loughborough

Sponsorship and exhibition opportunities available

IGEM also anticipates holding the below Technical Seminars:

IGEM/TD/13 Edition 2 – June 2010: Pressure Regulating Installations for Transmission and Distribution Systems - June 2010

IGEM/G/6 – June 2010: Gas Supplies to Mobile Dwellings

IGEM/GM/6 Edition 2 - June 2010: Standard Diaphragm and RD Meter Installations

IGEM/SR/15 Edition 5 - September 2010: Integrity of Safety-related Systems

IGEM/SR/25 Edition 2 - September 2010: Hazardous Area Classification

IGEM/UP/1B Edition 2 - October 2010: Tightness Testing and Purging

IGEM/UP/17 - November 2010: Shared Chimney & Flue Systems for Domestic Gas Appliances

All the events listed above may be subject to change. For updated information please look at the Events section of our website: www.igem.org.uk/events

Each Section of IGEM also has its own calendar of annual events. Please see the Events section of our website to access this information: www.igem.org.uk/events

To register your interest at one of the above events, please contact; Anita King, Events Officer, 01509 678159 or email; anita@igem.org.uk

The Institution of Gas Engineers and Managers
IGEM House, High Street, Kegworth, Derbyshire, DE74 2DA
Registered Charity No 214011