

INDUSTRIAL AFFILIATE

Companies from all around the world can join as Industrial Affiliates. They represent the complete cross-section of all disciplines comprising of gas manufacture, transmission, distribution, storage and utilisation including related activities such as exploration, liquefied gas technology and gas contractors.

These embrace the relevant chemical, civil, electrical, mechanical and structural engineering elements associated with the multi-disciplinary gas industry.

BENEFITS OF BECOMING AN INDUSTRIAL AFFILIATE

As an Industrial Affiliate, you will become conversant with the activities of the Institution and support its aims and objectives. In return you will receive the following benefits:

Professional Recognition

Each nominated representative of your organisation will be entitled to use the post nominal Aff:IGEM e.g. John Smith Aff:IGEM, specially created for Industrial Affiliate representatives.

Endorsement

An Industrial Affiliate logo has been developed for use on your corporate stationary and product packaging to add prestige and increased credibility.

Business Contacts and Information

Up to six nominated representatives of your organisation can enjoy many of the same benefits as an individual member of the Institution. They receive the Institution's journal 'Gas International' as well as other regular information on industry standards and practice. They can also attend IGEM events where they will meet with fellow industry professionals.

Marketing Package

On becoming an Industrial Affiliate all organisations are given the unique opportunity to place a free article in the 'News from Industry' section of the journal. Now read in over 70 countries, the journal is the leading information provider for technical innovation in the gas industry. Our marketing professionals will be happy to discuss specific product launches and promotion packages to maximise coverage. Company profiles combined with display advertising are also available to you. Larger technical articles of wider interest can also be accommodated.

A Voice in the Industry

Opportunities to have dialogue with bodies such as Ofgem, the Health and Safety Executive and the Department of Trade and Industry.

A Standard of Best Practice

IGEM has more than 50 technical committees that establish Standards of Best Practice in many areas of industry activity. Your organisation's interests can be represented in these activities.

Technical Standards

As an Industrial Affiliate you will be entitled to receive large discounts off all IGEM Technical Standards.
